Lutheran Teens Encounter Christ (T.E.C.)

What is Teens Encounter Christ?

A retreat ministry for high school age youth and older based on Lutheran theology.

A chance to strengthen your faith in Christ and learn more about what it means to daily live out your baptism

Retreats are planned and led by youth, pastors and lay adults, all of whom have participated in a previous TEC weekend.

TEC lets young adults experience the fun and shared spirituality found in a Christian community.

What happens at a Teens Encounter Christ weekend retreat?

You hear youth, pastors, and adults share ways to live faithfully and keep a close relationship with Christ.

You participate in daily worship and communion.

You have opportunities to learn more about yourself and to examine your relationship with Christ.

You enjoy the entire group at meals, during recreation, and in fun activities.

You learn how to share your faith with others more effectively.

You sing lots of great songs! (If you have been to a synod youth event or ever heard "Lost and Found", we're sure you will know at least some of them.)

You get to know other Christian youth, mostly Lutheran, from Eastern NC, make great friends, and find a supportive Christian community.

How long is a Teens Encounter Christ weekend retreat?

Three days, with each day having its own theme grounded in Lutheran theology:

Die Day - As Christ died for us, so we need to die to ourselves through confession and forgiveness.

Rise Day - As Christ rose from death, so we are given new life in Christ through our baptism.

Go Day - As the disciples were sent out by Christ, so we are sent out with the Holy Spirit to share Christ's love.

Who attends a Teens Encounter Christ weekend retreat?

Youth and adults who have been baptized and confirmed. Youth must have completed one semester of 9th grade and be at least 15 years old.

Attendance is limited to 25 youth guests and 10 adult guests. (The first time that youth from a congregation attend a TEC retreat, we strongly recommend that at least one adult from that church also attend.)

Pastors are always welcome to attend as guests. Pastors are an integral part of the TEC experience and no weekend can happen without their spiritual guidance.

Share the Word TEC retreats are held Saturday 9:00 AM – Monday 4:30 PM on Labor Day and Martin Luther King Jr. holiday weekends.

Is financial assistance available for guests?

Scholarships are available for guests. Please complete the scholarship application on our web site and mail it to the TEC Board for review.
